

Level of magnetic activity as probed by the CaII H&K spectral lines as a function of the rotation period of stars

